

Concrete Sheet Pile Press-in Method

Concrete sheet piles are prefabricated to eliminate the necessity for temporary wooden or metal form-work at site. This method can quickly and safely construct a strong high quality prefabricated structural wall. Additionally, this method does not disturb water flow in river and canal work. Construction planning does not need to be constrained by location and seasonal variations in weather.

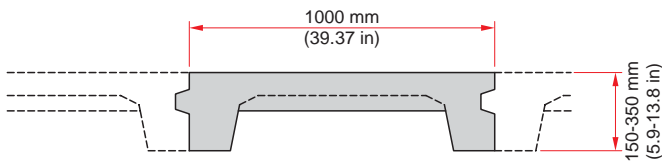

CP80

CP50

Pile Dimensions

Channel Type

Flat Type

