Disclosure level	Companies that understand and disclose their current status	D D-

2. GIKEN initiatives

Aiming to achieve a sustainable society and sustainable growth through its “Construction Revolution,” the GIKEN Group positions response to climate change as its key management issue. We are endeavoring to solve social issues while seeking to open up new markets by accelerating the proposal of temporary work-free construction technologies that significantly reduce CO₂ emissions at construction sites, as well as the development of decarbonization technologies. We will continue to engage in dialogue and collaboration with our stakeholders, flexibly address changing times and needs, and lead the way in solving global social issues.
